Heavies in mixed week ending trades...

Seven of the current ZSE top capitalized stocks dominated today's trades with 2 of them gaining, 3 falling and 2 unchanged. DELTA, OLD MUTUAL and SEEDCO registered marginal retreats of 1.20% to $0.7387, 1.36% to $2.1109 and 1.96% to $0.8799 largely on sell-offs. ECONET and BAT on the other hand gained 1.07% to $0.1800 and 1.04% to $12.1754 in that order as demand continued to soar. BARCLAYS traded unchanged at $0.4320 and SIMBISA was flat at $0.1550. ZIMRE was the only other mover of the day slipping 0.81% to $0.0122. This coincided with the company's official announcement of the retirement of its CEO Mr A. J Nduna with effect from 31 December 2015, having been with the company for more than 31 years. Their above movements culminated in the Industrial Index movement of 0.48pts or 0.41% decline to 117.64pts. The Mining Index completed a full week of no movement, flat at 22.33pts with no Friday trades in the cluster.

SIMBISA currently tightly held broke silence with its 45% share to volumes of the day that stood at 2.87mn shares and 39% to value of $516,590. Interest in SIMBISA was largely foreign to foreign. Other notable exchanges were in ECONET, being 42.5% of volume and 42.4% of value. External investors were entirely the source of supply in the telecoms giant and were 50% of the demand in the same stock. Meanwhile, 56.25% of the buying on the ZSE was foreign while 81.43% of the selling was theirs as well. Despite its dismal 2015 finals, MASH traded stable at $0.0220 and closed the day offered at the same level.
